 Fort Collins, CO |  Full-Time |  $55,000–$85,000

Do you speak fluent Excel? Love transforming chaos into clean financial insights? Think spreadsheets can actually be exciting? We might just be the team you've been waiting for.

Who We Are

At EDM International, Inc., we're in the business of building smarter infrastructure, and that includes our own operations. As an employee-owned company working with electric utilities and construction teams across the country, we know that solid financial insight is key to our success—and that's where you come in.

Perks & Pay (a.k.a. The Good Stuff):

- $55K–$85K salary depending on experience and spreadsheet swagger.
- Company-paid health insurance that actually covers things (we've got you).
- Dental & vision insurance—because smiles and sight are kind of a big deal.
- HSA with employer contributions—aka extra cash for doctor visits, prescriptions, or emergency chocolate.
- Wellness stipend for your mental and physical glow-up: gym, therapy, meditation apps, hiking boots... you name it.
- 401(k) with company match, because we believe in future-you.
- Flexible PTO to unplug, unwind, and come back better.
- Learning & development opportunities so you can keep leveling up like a financial wizard.

What You'll Be Rocking Day-to-Day:

- Run the general ledger like a pro and close the books on time—every time.
- Craft balance sheets, income statements, and all the financial faves (GAAP-style).
- Record and reconcile everything from income to equity—because numbers don't lie.
- Help shape our budgets and forecasts, turning ideas into fiscal reality.
- Keep our books clean, compliant, and ready for tax time.
- Be an audit hero, prepping docs and reports that make auditors smile.
- Find smarter, faster ways to do things—process improvements are your playground.
- Partner with project managers to track financial performance and keep projects on-point.
- Help build and strengthen internal controls and policies that make finance rock solid.

- And of course, pitch in with other duties as assigned—because we’re all about teamwork, flexibility, and rolling with the punches.

What You Bring:

- Bachelor’s in Accounting, Finance, or related field.
- 3+ years of cost accounting experience (extra high five if you’ve worked in construction or utilities).
- Fluent in accounting software like QuickBooks, Vision, or VantagePoint
- Detail-obsessed, deadline-hitting, cost-savvy mindset.
- CPA or CMA? Cool, but not required.

Why EDM?

- We’re an employee-owned company doing meaningful work with utilities and infrastructure. Here, you’re not just another accountant—you’re a vital part of a mission-driven team that values smarts, heart, and a good sense of humor.
